Mentorship Program for the students by the Faculty Members of Panchthupi Haripada Gouribala College.

Preface :

Beyond class room teaching there is a high need of continuous career guidance and counseling programme for the students. Now a days the UGC is guiding and requesting all the Higher educational institutions to run such programmes in proper module. The PHGC has responded on the drive in proper, under consideration of the ground reality.

Short Report :

If we look upon the initiatives taken by the PHGC in last five academic years, we will find three prominent phases based on implicational practices.

If we consider the programme outcomes, all through, the students were well groomed, psychologically nursed and guided properly for their future professional and social life.

Academic Year : 2017-18/2018-19/2019-20

Modus Operandi :

A lecture session by the Madam Principal and senior teaching and non teaching staffs - on the day one of the season.

Class room group discussion by the Faculty Members in regularity through out the whole year.

Time to time, some career based seminars had been organised.

Academic Year

2020-21

Modus Operandi : In pandemic, it had turned into on line. The focus was on the mental health of the students.

On and from academic year 2021-22

Modus Operandi

Systematic Drive

Considering the course pattern, some small groups of around 40 to 50 students had been made in random basis. Each of the groups are under the charge of a faculty member. The charges are distributed in view of cross faculty system.

Every mentor had been instructed to

1. Maintain the mental health of the students.
2. Provide guidance for future career.
3. Monitor daily academic progress.

The mentors are free to suggest and ask IQAC for any kind of help, providings including special career oriented programme. It is also to specify that at least two meetings of all mentors to be held in an academic year, one on after admission of 1st semester and 2nd on the time of second lap of full session.

On the other hand The IQAC head may intervne into any matter of any group as and when required.

Hereby the IQAC is getting the pleasure to declare that the on going process are found satisfactory.
